

Israel Állam Nagykövetsége
Embassy of the State of Israel

375
E·L·T·E

The Embassy of the State of Israel
and
Eötvös Loránd University
invite you to attend
the Israeli-Hungarian social psychology workshop

UNDERSTANDING AND REDUCING INTERGROUP BIAS

Date: 26th May, 2010

Venue: ELTE Faculty of Education and Psychology
(1075 Budapest, Kazinczy utca 23-27.)
Nagy Sándor Hall

PROGRAM

9.00 - 9.30 Registration

9.30 Opening

Aliza Bin-Noun (Ambassador of the State of Israel)
József Pálinkás (President of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences)
Ferenc Hudecz (Rector of the Eötvös Loránd University)

9.45 – 11.15 Theory and practice I. (lectures)

Monika Kovács

(Center for Intercultural Psychology and Education, Faculty of Education and Psychology, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest)

Understanding and reducing intergroup bias: the social psychological perspective

David Senesh

(Levinsky College of Education, Tel Aviv)

Restoring dialogue in conflict discourse

Raphael Vago

(Department of History, The Stephen Roth Institute for the Study of Contemporary Anti-Semitism, Tel Aviv University, Tel Aviv)

How do we research and teach prejudices and stereotypes? – An Israeli historian's perspective

Coffee break

11.30-13.00 Research results I. (presentations)

István Síklaki

(Department of Social Psychology, Faculty of Social Sciences, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest)

Stereotypes, identity, advertisement

Lan Anh Nguyen Luu

(Center for Intercultural Psychology and Education, Faculty of Education and Psychology, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest)

Perceived treatment: how Chinese and Vietnamese immigrant families see their acceptance in Hungary

Judit Kende

(Center for Intercultural Psychology and Education, Faculty of Education and Psychology, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest)

Ethnic prejudice of young children in Hungary

Lunch break

13.30-14.30 Theory and practice II. (presentations to be followed by a round table discussion)

Moderator:

Ferenc Erős (Research Institute of Psychology, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Budapest)

Participants:

Chava Baruch (Yad Vashem, Jerusalem)

Zsuzsa Vidra (Institute of Sociology, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Budapest)

Éva B. Nagy (Hungarian Gallup Institute, Budapest)

Zsuzsanna Szelényi (Active Citizenship Foundation Hungary, Budapest)

Break

14.45- 16.15 Research results II. (presentations)

Péter Krekó

(Department of Social and Educational Psychology, Faculty of Education and Psychology, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest - Political Capital Institute, Budapest)

Demand for right wing extremism - with a focus on Hungary and Israel

Zsolt Enyedi

(Department of Political Science, Central European University, Budapest)

Authoritarianism without dominant ideology: political manifestations of authoritarian attitudes

Antal Örkény - Luca Váradi

(Department of Minority Studies, Faculty of Social Sciences, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest - Humboldt University, Berlin)

Social roots of prejudicial thinking from a comparative perspective

Break

16.30 – 18.30 Documentary film and discussion with the director

Borbála Kriza

(Department of Sociology, Faculty of Social Sciences, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest)

Rocking the nation

To join for this workshop please register until 17th May.

Please send your name and affiliation to Nóra Gaál
(e-mail: gaal.nora@ppk.elte.hu or fax: +36 1 461 4529).

Organizers:

Embassy of the State of Israel
Eötvös Loránd University
Faculty of Education and Psychology