

European Social Survey 2nd ESS Visegrad Regional Network Conference

Budapest, 7–8 June, 2018

Central-East European societies on the map of Europe

Thursday, 7 June

12:00–13:00 Welcome and introductory session

12:00–12:15 Welcome speech by Zsolt Boda
(Director, Institute for Political Science, CSS HAS)

12:15–12:50 Keynote speech by Prof. Rory Fitzgerald
(Director, ESS ERIC)
European Social Survey: past achievements, new challenges

12:50–13:00 Questions and answers

13:00–14:30 Session 1 Evaluation of democracy Chair: Dániel Oross (CSS HAS)

13:00–13:20 Endre Borbáth, Theresa Gessler and Hanspeter Kriesi
(European University Institute)
The hour of the citizen. The evolution of Eastern Europeans' conceptions of democracy

13:20–13:40 Klára Plecítá (Institute of Sociology CAS)
Lost in transition, found in recession? Satisfaction with democracy in Central Europe before and after economic crises

13:40–14:00 Jaroslava Pospíšilová (Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University Prague)
Delegation gap in the Czech Republic. Do the political elites share the democratic attitudes with their voters?

14:00–14:30 Roundtable with the participants of the panel
What has happened to our democracies?

14:30–15:00 Coffee break with sandwiches

15:00–16:30 Session 2 Attitudes towards migration Chair: Endre Sik (ELTE and CSS HAS)

15:00–15:20 Piotr Cichocki and Piotr Jabkowski
(University of Poznan, Poland)
Doing surveys ahead of a storm. What insights are provided by ESS7 and ESS8 into the context and impact of the 2015 migration crisis in the Visegrad Group countries

15:20–15:40 Vera Messing and Bence Ságvári (CSS HAS)
Looking behind the culture of fear. A cross-national analysis of attitudes towards migration

15:40–16:00 Ildikó Barna (ELTE Budapest), Júlia Koltai (CSS HAS)
The changes of attitudes towards immigrants in the turbulent years of the anti-immigrant campaign in Hungary

16:00–16:30 Questions and answers
Roundtable with the participants of the panel
Why is migration so feared in the Visegrad countries?

16:30–18:00 Session 3 Political participation and movements Chair: Márton Gerő (CSS HAS)

16:30–16:50 Theresa Gessler and Endre Borbáth (European University Institute)
Different worlds of contention? Left and right protest across Europe

16:50–17:10 Veronika Patkós and András Szántó (CSS HAS)
Three aspects of political sophistication. Which one is responsible for partisan bias?

17:10–17:30 Jozef Výrost and Miroslava Bozogáňová
(Centre of Social and Psychological Sciences of SAS)
An outline of social and psychological profile of higher and lower politically participative ESS respondents in R1-7

17:30–18:00 Questions and answers
Roundtable with the participants of the panel
Political participation in Central East Europe. What's different?

20:00 Dinner (venue to be announced)

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 676166.

Centre for Social Sciences
Hungarian Academy of Sciences

European Social Survey 2nd ESS Visegrad Regional Network Conference

Budapest, 7–8 June, 2018

Central-East European societies on the map of Europe

Friday, 8 June

9:00–10:30 Session 4 Welfare attitudes

Chair: Dorottya Szikra (CSS HAS)

- 9:00–9:20 Mariusz Baranowski and Piotr Jabkowski (University of Poznan, Poland)
Any differences in welfare state attitudes?
The Visegrad Group countries in a European cross-national study
- 9:20–9:40 Kristyna Basna (Institute of Sociology, CAS)
Welfare state in the East and West, findings from the ESS4 and ESS8 rounds
- 9:40–10:00 Ivana Piterová and Jozef Výrost (Centre of Social and Psychological Sciences, SAS)
Welfare attitudes of V4, Northern, and Western Europe over time in ESS Round 4 and Round 8 data
- 10:00–10:30 Questions and answers
Roundtable with the participants of the panel
Anything special about welfare attitudes in Visegrad 4 countries compared to old EU member states?
- 10:30–11:00 Coffee break
- #### 11:00–12:30 Session 5 Determinants of economic competitiveness
- Chair: Ákos Huszár (CSS HAS)
- 11:00–11:20 Denisa Fedakova and Lucia Istonova (Centre of Social and Psychological Sciences, SAS)
Job security across Europe. Perception of job security predictors in the Southern, Northern and Central European countries
- 11:20–11:40 Bence Ságvári (CSS HAS)
Changes in the patterns of trust in Central Eastern Europe. Challenges in measuring trust across time and space
- 11:40–12:00 Zoltán Ferencz (CSS HAS)
Attitudes towards climate change and energy use in Hungary and in East-Central Europe
- 12:00–12:30 Questions and answers
Roundtable with the participants of the panel

12:30–13:30 Lunch

13:30–14:30 Session 6 Attitudes towards intersecting inequalities

Chair: Vera Messing (CSS HAS)

- 13:30–13:50 Ivan Petrúšek (Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University; Institute of Sociology CAS)
Support for income redistribution in the Czech Republic, 2002–2016
- 13:50–14:10 Ridvan Peshkopia, Jonida Lika and Liri Kosovare Bllaca (University for Business and Technology, Kosovo)
Attitudes toward refugees in a larger Europe
- 14:10–14:30 Ivett Szalma and Judit Takács (CSS HAS)
Social attitudes towards homosexuality in Hungary and Romania. Does the main denomination matter?
- #### 14:30–15:00 Closing session Takeaways, future paths of research and publications
- with Rory Fitzgerald, Stefan Swift (ESS ERIC HQ), Vera Messing and Bence Ságvári (CSS HAS)

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 676166.

Centre for Social Sciences
Hungarian Academy of Sciences

